

Ai-Lien Vuong, AIA, NOMA

Ai-Lien Vuong is an Architect and Associate officer at HOK in Atlanta, Georgia. She holds a B.S. in Architecture, Master of Architecture, and Master of City & Regional Planning from the Georgia Institute of Technology. Her professional experience includes higher education, science & technology, commercial, adaptive reuse, historic preservation, transit-oriented development, multi-family housing, and affordable housing. Ai-Lien currently serves on the AIA-Georgia Board as an At-Large Director, Advocacy Chair, and Co-Chair of the Equity in Architecture Committee. She also advocates for thoughtful, well-designed places and public spaces as an appointed member of the Atlanta Beltline Design Review Committee. She is an alumna of the Enterprise Rose Architectural Fellowship which aimed to increase organizational capacity in the design process, authentic community engagement, and equity in the built environment.

