

Jane Rodrigues, AIA

Jane Rodrigues is a licensed Architect in Georgia with a professional career spanning 22 years. She holds a Bachelors in Architecture from IIT, Kharagpur and graduated with a Masters in Architecture from Georgia Institute of Technology in 2021. She is currently employed at Dynamik Design as a Project Manager with a focus on residential multi-family & mixed-use. Jane serves as the Chair Elect of the AIA Georgia Christopher Kelly Leadership Development program (CKLDP) and has in the past been a part of the jury for AIA Atlanta's High School Design Competition and NOMA's Project Pipeline. She currently participates as a mentor in the AIA Atlanta Student Mentorship Program and the Immigrant Architects Coalition's Mentorship Program. Previously, Jane received the 2024 WLS / Carmen Stan Memorial Scholarship presented by EQiA and AIA Georgia.

